sense, to me, would indicate that we lay this over for a year, till next January, and see what the federal regs do. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Bourne. Senator Mines, followed by Senator Smith and Chambers.

SENATOR MINES: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, colleagues. I want...first of all, I don't support the bill, don't support the amendment. But Senator Chambers was on a line of questioning that I think I need a little bit more of his background on this, if he would yield.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR MINES: Thank you, Senator Chambers. You raised the question about "charitables" and harassing by charitable organizations. Were you leading into something, or were you just questioning what the end result might be, if there is one?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, I don't know whether these people are registered as 501, whatever this says. But they feel like they're missionaries. And they...I don't know if they're assigned to call, but they will call and call and call. And they're told, I don't want to be called. And some of the people have to take their phone off the hook and hope that when they hang it up finally that the calls will stop.

SENATOR MINES: Okay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And I'm wondering if that is covered under the bill with the charitable exception.

SENATOR MINES: Yeah, and I noticed in the bill that it does somewhat cover harassing calls, but I think that's perhaps a bit loose. And when we talk about 501's, we're also excluding, you know, a church group, as an example, that may want to raise money for a new park bench. Because they are not in fact a 501(c)(3) or whatever organization it may be, they don't qualify under that definition. And I wonder perhaps if I could ask
